HORSE TRACKER

JAMES PYMAN'S INTRODUCTION

RACING POST
BANK HOLIDAY
SPECIAL
OVERJOYED

Hi there,

As part of the recent upgrade to the Racing Post iPad app we have enhanced the Organiser with brand new Horse Tracker functionality. Horse Tracker can be found in the current Organiser tab, from Horse profile pages and race cards. Here's a quick run-through for how you can use your new tool.

HOME

Here's your home screen. Once you've logged in you can go directly to your stable of horses that you already follow, Pro Picks (more on this later) or search for horses to add to your tracker.
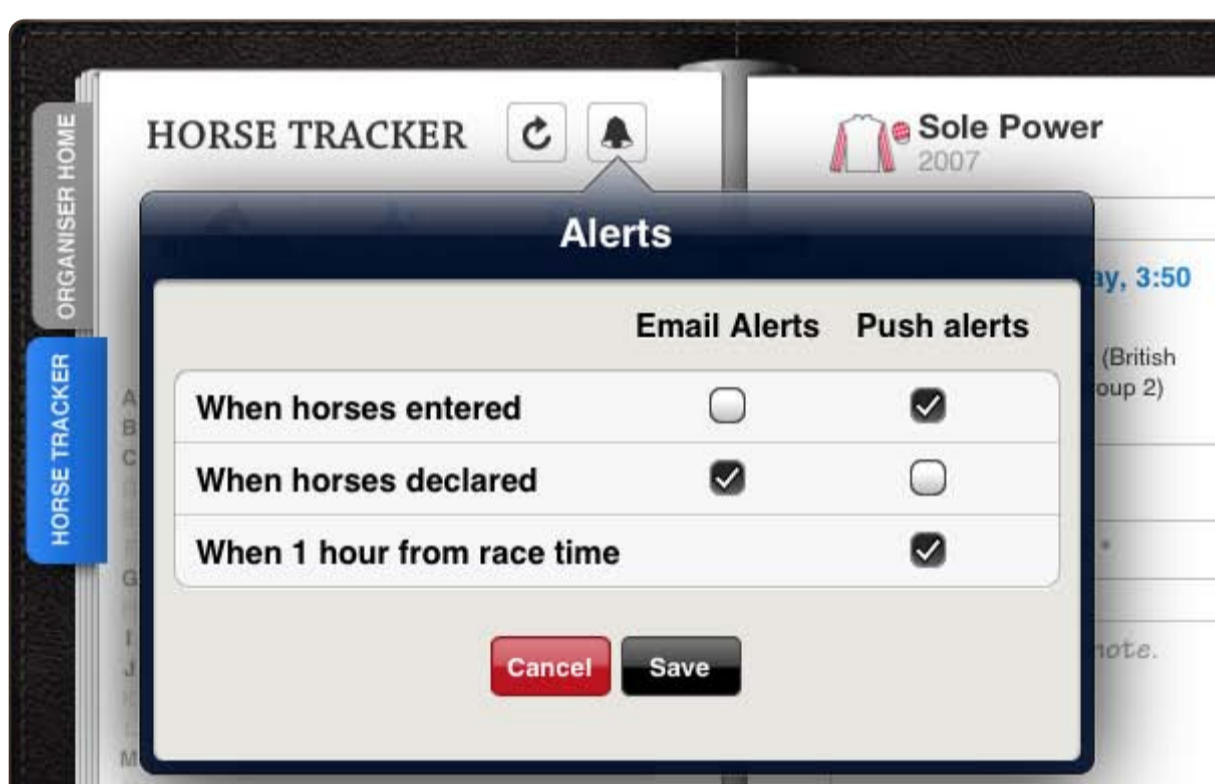

SEARCH

The search function works exactly the same as that on the database. Simply search for the horse you're looking for, insert your note if you wish and add them to your stable using the 'Add Horse' button.

Welcome to the Organiser

MY HORSES
Add/remove, make notes, view your horses alphabetically, or by entries or declarations. Click to view your horse's profile page, including form and pedigree

PRO PICKS
Horses to follow from Racing Post's expert tipsters, including James Pyman's Pycatchers. Read the expert notes and save them to your My Horses

SEARCH
Simply search within Horse Tracker for any horse in our database that you would like to add

In Horse Tracker you can select if you would like to receive email alerts when your horses are entered and declared to run

PRO PICK

In this section I'll be adding my picks from my Friday column Py Catchers. You can then easily add them to your stable. I'll refresh these once a week so it doesn't get clogged up. Justin O'Hanlon will do the same with his Dark Horses, which are printed in the Irish Racing Post every Wednesday.

James Pyman 3/3

Edge IRE 2011
Lost ground at the start but he gradually warmed to the task and devoured the ground in the closing stages to grab a place. He'll be hard to beat next time. Back on next three starts

Jwala 2009
Blessed with loads of natural speed and this was a bold attempt to make all, finding just the smart Medicean Man too good close home. When able to race against her own sex she looks up to winning at Listed level. Back on next three starts

Teak IRE 2007
Unsuited by the lack of pace yet he compromised

ENTRIES

If you want to view the entries of the horses you follow in chronological order you can do so by clicking the 'Entered' tab on the My Horses page.
