Lenient rise can bring on more success for Spinner

Bring On A Spinner made it four wins from five runs at Southwell over 6f last month and can extend his good course record in the 3.00. A 3lb rise looks fair and he is still lightly raced having had just ten starts.

Elusivity won the claimer at Southwell last year (3.35) and bounced back from some lesser efforts by scoring over 6f here last time, including beating a rival going for a hat-trick. Today will be harder at the weights but he should be followed.

Victor Dartnall showed he is a trainer to follow when sending his runners over 200 miles as Dancing Shadow won at Musselburgh on Saturday. My Matador makes the 338-mile trip for the 5.45 Newcastle and can enhance the trainer's record of 17-56 (30 per cent). It's his sole runner on the card and Paul Hanagan is booked to ride.
