Bookmaker can land the odds with Elliott on board

Bookmaker is 5lb lower than when landing the Kempton 5.50 last year despite winning and going close on his last two starts. The fitting of cheekpieces and Jane Elliott riding can continue to have a positive effect.

Mythical Madness has hit form since returning from nearly a year off in November, winning three of his six starts at Wolverhampton. He'll likely appreciate returning to this venue and easing in grade from Listed company in the 3.30.

On A Promise has only shown minor promise in three runs over hurdles but can step forward now handicapping in the Newcastle 3.50. Nicky Richards has a strike-rate of 24 per cent (10-42, +£17.08) with such runners.

James Bethell sends On Fire 246 miles to run in the Kempton 7.50 and his strike-rate of ten per cent rises to 16 per cent in such circumstances. On Fire is unexposed as a stayer and ran a race full of promise in just his second handicap over course and distance four weeks ago.
