Signposts Sweetspots

Take a broad view and look to Irish raider Little Stampy

Daniel Tudhope is worth following at Leicester. His mount Vizier (3.50) looks sure to go close and can add to his 29 per cent strike-rate at the track.

Malker and Richard Kingscote are a pair to keep on side when teaming up at Wolverhampton. They have one runner this evening in Peking Flyer (8.40) as they bid to enhance their 40 per cent strike-rate.

>> Ireland-based David Broad is a man to note when sending runners over to Wolverhampton, where he has a a 100 per cent strike-rate (3-3). The trainer runs Little Stampy in the 8.10 and this one will go close if he can build on his fourth at Dundalk three weeks ago.

▶ Brother Tiger loves it around Lingfield, notching four course and distance wins. Although 4lb higher for his victory last time he should be there at the finish in the 4.10, with Silvestre de Sousa again taking the ride.
