Shankara can make trip worthwhile for Spencer

William Money (3.35 Ludlow) was a 19-length winner on just his second start for Tim Vaughan at Newcastle last week. The trainer has a 27 per cent strike-rate when turning them out within seven days of a win.

Jamie Spencer heads to Lingfield for one ride and Shankara (3.25) can reward him by going one better than on debut at Wolverhampton last week. David Simcock's filly was well fancied that day and should be suited by the extra yardage here.

Dan Skelton has a 31 per cent strike-rate with new hurdling recruits (37-118) and Charming Zen in the 2.10 at Doncaster can make a winning British debut having been purchased for €210,000 in November. He won by an eased down 10 lengths on his sole start in France and looks an exciting prospect.
