Amuletum looks set to score on handicap debut

Easter In Paris looks to have a good chance in the 3.45 at Hereford, a race she won last year off a 4lb higher mark. A return to this favoured trip and the prospect of slightly better ground can see her go well.

Peter Chapple-Hyam's overall strike-rate improves from 13 per cent to 37 per cent with runners travelling over 245 miles. He sends Amuletum (7.10) to Newcastle and she looks to have a great chance on handicap debut.

Tom Tate and Andrew Mullen operate at an impressive 40 per cent strike-rate when combining at Newcastle. The pair team up with Leodis (5.40). His best effort came over course and distance two starts ago and he can get off the mark on his return to Gosforth Park.
