Moore ready to extend his perfect record on Capri

Oliver Sherwood has a 75 per cent strike-rate in the last two weeks and sends two horses to Market Rasen, the pick being Jersey Bean (2.50). There should be more improvement to come from this handicap debutant.

Ryan Moore has a 100 per cent record (3-3) aboard the Aidan O'Brien-trained Capri and the pair are out to make it four-timer in the Champions Stakes at Ascot (3.50). After a fine fifth in the Arc it would be no surprise were Capri to dethrone last year's winner Cracksman.

William Haggas excels at Catterick, where he has a 45 per cent strike-rate, and Ice Gala (2.25) is his only runner at the course. This two-year-old filly ran with credit in an above-average conditions stakes on her latest start and this drop in grade can help her notch a success.
