Mann's Man can come of age at Huntingdon

Karl Burke and Ben Curtis tend to do well when teaming up at Ayr (50 per cent) and Baron Run has a chance to enhance that record in the 3.05. Curtis rides the gelding for the first time and the better ground should suit.

John Gosden does well with his horses at Chepstow - he has a 50 per cent strike-rate over the last five years. Almoghared will look to improve that record in the 4.55, in which he will be bidding to go one better than his debut second last time.

Over the last five years this has been a prime time for Charlie Mann. The trainer has a 35 per cent (+£47.60) strike-rate in the fortnight either side of today. The Ogle Gogle Man will look to uphold this trend in the 6.40 at Huntingdon, where the better ground is likely to suit.
