Nassau repeat is perfect showcase for Juddmonte

MIDDAY

Race analysis The Nassau Stakes should provide an opportunity to measure the relative strengths of the three-year-old filly crop against their elders. But this year's renewal, which took place at Goodwood on good to firm ground on Saturday, was dominated by four-year-olds, with fillies of that age filling the first four places and the two three-year-old entrants, along with older mare Barshiba, coming home last of the seven runners.

This year's field looked well up to scratch. Last season's Nassau and Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine Middyday started favourite, with last season's Prix de Diane winner Stacelita, this season's Prix de Diane runner-up Rosanara and Windsor Forest Stakes winner Strawberrydaiquiri among the fancied runners.

Barshiba, fresh from a repeat success in the Lancashire Oaks, cut out the running, closely tracked by Middyday, Stacelita and Antara. At the two-furlong pole Middyday made her move and went two lengths clear, with Stacelita giving chase. When she idled a furlong from home, Stacelita briefly got her head in front, but Middyday picked up again, despite hanging left, and shot clear, passing the line one and a quarter lengths in front of Stacelita.

Antara, bought by Godolphin in training from Germany, stayed on well for third, with Strawberrydaiquiri a further three-quarters of a length behind her in fourth. French raider Rosanara had been unable to take her chance in the Irish Oaks two weeks earlier, having become upset on the plane in France, and she was brought to Goodwood by train. However, she disappointed badly, having been held up at the back of the pack but being unable to quicken when asked.

Middyday's trainer Henry Cecil reported that the filly got jarred up after being beaten into second by Sariska in the Middleton Stakes on good to firm ground at York in May, so the rest of her campaign this year may be dictated by the weather. The Yorkshire Oaks on August 19 is her short-term aim, and she will no doubt be targeted at a repeat victory at the Breeders' Cup. In her current form, she would be a tough nut for the colts to crack in the Breeders' Cup Turf.

Pedigree Middyday is a true Juddmonte-bred from the top to the bottom of her pedigree.

Her sire Oasis Dream, a champion at two and three in Khalid Abdullah's silks, has been the stallion sensation of the past few seasons. Now halfway through his fourth season with progeny of racing age, he has sired seven individual Group 1 winners, including Lady Jane Digby, who won the Grosser Dallmayr-Preis six days before the Nassau.

She is descended from one of Abdullah's most important broodmare acquisitions, Mofida, who, like another Juddmonte blue hen, Sookera (grand-dam of Hasili, dam of five Group 1 winners and in-form sire Dansili), was bought in foal to The Minstrel from Robert Sangster.

That foal by The Minstrel turned out to be Zaizafon, dam of brilliant 2,000 Guineas winner Zafonic and Zamindar, who gained immortality as sire of the Aga Khan's fantastic filly Zarkava. The result of Juddmonte's first choice of mating for Mofida, Roberto, was Modena, who proved just as able as a broodmare, producing Group 1 winners Elmaamul and Reams Of Verse, and Lingfield Oaks Trial runner-up Midsummer, the dam of Middyday.

The family came under the microscope on these pages two weeks ago, when last season's Haydock Sprint Cup winner Regal Parade – whose grand-dam is a half-sister to Modena and Zaizafon – won the Shadwell Stakes at Newbury. Other relations currently in training who are doing their bit for family honour include last year's Queen Elizabeth II Stakes runner-up Zacinto, a grandson of Reams Of Verse, last year's Joel Stakes scorer Confront, who is out of Modena's 1998 daughter by Danzig, Contiguous, and this season's Yorkshire Cup hero Manifest, Modena's last foal, by Rainbow Quest.

Furthermore, Mofida is also ancestress of last month's Listed Prix de Thiberville winner Announce, last season's St Leger Yearling Stakes scorer Midnight Martini and April's Group 2 bet365 Mile third The Cheka.

Midsummer also has a two-year-old colt by Stacelita's sire Monsun, called Midsummer Sun and in training with Henry Cecil, a yearling sister to Middyday and a filly foal by Pivotal.

Hold That Tiger breaks duck at top level with Bing Crosby win

SMILING TIGER

Race analysis Smiling Tiger struck a blow for the American three-year-old crop with a one and a half length victory over his elders in the 6f Bing Crosby Stakes at Del Mar.

Smiling Tiger was high class last year, running last season's champion juvenile and subsequent standout three-year-old Lookin At Lucky close when placed in the Best Pal Stakes and Del Mar Futurity.

He had already beaten older rivals this year, when making all to win the Grade 3 Lázaro Barrera Memorial at Hollywood Park in May.

So it was a measure of the high-quality field that assembled for the Bing Crosby that he was sent off the fourth favourite in a six-runner race. Cost Of Freedom, a Grade 1-winning sprinter in 2008 who had won the Grade 3 Los Angeles Handicap from runner-up E Z's Gentleman on his last start, started odds-on favourite, ahead of re-opposing E Z's Gentleman who was second most favoured by punters, while third favourite was Scenic Blast, who landed last year's King's Stand Stakes at Royal Ascot for Australia, but making his second start for new trainer John Shirreffs in the US.

But none of Smiling Tiger's

his goal this season, Smiling Tiger gave his trainer Jeff Bonde a first Grade 1 success.

Pedigree Smiling Tiger also provided his sire, Hold That Tiger, with a first top-flight success.

Like Ishiguru, Hold That Tiger was a seven-figure purchase by Coolmore in his case for $1.1million at the Keeneland November sale as a foal. He is a Storm Cat half-brother to Belmont Stakes winner Editor's Note and out of a half-sister to Hennessy, who was also by Storm Cat and enjoyed success as a sire, notably with all-conquering juvenile Johannesburg (sire of Saturday's Stewards' Cup winner Evens And Odds) and this season's 1,000 Guineas heroine Special Duty.

Hold That Tiger won the Group 1 Grand Criterium at Longchamp at two, beating Le Vie Dei Colori and Intercontinental, and ran third in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, but, similar to Ishiguru, he didn't deliver as much as he promised at three, failing to win a race but doing enough – including finishing second to Mineshaft in the Woodward

Markskeepingfaith makes mark

SHE'S OUR MARK

Race analysis She's Our Mark confirmed herself one of the toughest older mares in Ireland with a convincing one-and-a-half-length win in the Give Thanks Stakes at Cork on Sunday, her sixth in black-type company.

The Patrick Flynn-trained six-year-old didn't drop many clues at two that she would be a future Pattern winner, remaining a maiden from six starts – although she did manage a close second in a valuable backend nursery at Leopardstown.

It was at three that She's Our Mark began to bloom – and show that, as well as class, she possessed admirable hardiness. Starting off in May, she progressed through handicaps to finish second to Redstone Dancer in the Group 3 Brownstown Stakes and eventually scored her first black-type win in the Group 3 Desmond Stakes against colts and older horses. In the race she took the scalp of subsequent Diadem Stakes hero Haatef and another Group 2 winner in Lord Admiral. That season she started ten times, finishing out of the first three only three times.

At four she failed to get her head in front, but showed that she had lost none of her talent, with runners-up spots in Group 3 company and in the Galway Mile Handicap, where she was carrying 5lb more than the winner, Celtic Dane.

At five last year she added another three stakes-race wins to her resume and picked up some eye-catching form along the way – including when beating Chinese White on heavy ground (and, admittedly, receiving 3lb) to land the Victor McCalmont Memorial Stakes and when fifth to Spacious in the Windsor Forest at Royal Ascot, with Lush Lashes and Proviso behind.

She's Our Mark's Give Thanks victory – in which she outran the three-year-old Galileo fillies Leo Gali (beaten one and a half lengths into second) and Zarebiya (a short head back in third) on only her second start over as far as 1m4f – was her second win of the season. In April she delivered the boys another beating, including a below-par

Stakes – not to take the gloss off of his golden juvenile season and earning a place at Coolmore's Ashford Stud in Kentucky.

But in the year after Hold That Tiger's first crop of two-year-olds runners made their debut – including Lane's End Breeders' Futurity third Old Man Buck – he was despatched to stand at the Haras de la Haie Neuve in France. Consequently, his current two-year-olds will be his final American-bred crop. Smiling Tiger was bred by Dr Rodney Orr out of the Cahill Road mare Shandra Smiles, a half-sister to Grade 3-placed miler Traci Girl, from the family of Prix de Diane heroine Escaline and Metropolitan Handicap and Vosburgh runner-up Love That Mac.

He was led out of the ring unsold for $32,000 at the Keeneland January sale as a yearling but found a buyer at $40,000 at the Washington September sale.

Fame And Glory, in the Alleged Stakes at the Curragh.

Since her three-year-old days, where she won one race each on good and good to firm ground, all of She's Our Mark's victories have come on rain-softened going between 1m1f and 1m4f.

Flynn said after the race that the mare would be kept in training. She has so far proved unequal to the task in three starts at the top level, and Group 3 seems to be her level, but you feel that, given the right conditions and weaker competition, she could make her presence felt in a top race on the continent. However, in 43 starts she has only travelled abroad to race once – to Ascot.

Pedigree In stark contrast to Middy, She's Our Mark's pedigree is light on black type. In fact, she's only the fifth – and by the far the best – black-type performer under her first four dams. So it's not difficult to see why she was picked up for only 3,500gns as a foal.

She is the first produce out of Markskeepingfaith, who, though unable to score in six tries in stakes company, may have passed down her toughness to her daughter.

A daughter of Ajraas – a well-bred and talented, but temperamental son of Northern Dancer whose stud record is of little account – Markskeepingfaith was a 4,000gns yearling purchase who won seven of her 46 starts over 7f to 1m1f between the ages of three and six.

Two of her siblings picked up black type, but their talents lay in the jumps sphere, with one, Mystical City, winning the Galway Hurdle, and the other, Keeping The Faith, finishing placed in Grade 2 company as a juvenile hurdler.

Markskeepingfaith's dam, Felicita, by another esoteric sire in Queen Anne Stakes scorer Mr Fluorocarbon, was a modest winning hurdler who can claim no black-type performing siblings.

So surely much of the credit for She's Our Mark's class on the Flat must go to her sire, the late Ishiguru. A superbly bred son of Danzig and dual US Grade 1 heroine Strategic Maneuver, Ishiguru was a $1.15m yearling purchase for Coolmore.

He was one of Aidan O'Brien's brightest prospects after winning a backend maiden at Naas by 11 lengths at two, but flopped in his first four starts at three. He got his career back on track with head victories in the Listed Belgrave Stakes and Group 3 Flying Five, but it was not enough to rescue his reputation, and instead of retiring to Coolmore at the end of the season he embarked on his stud career as a cheap source of speed at Tweenhills Stud in Gloucestershire, owned by She's Our Mark's co-breeder David Redvers.

Ishiguru got his stud career off to a flying start when his son Hellvelyn beat Major Cadeaux to win the Coventry Stakes and finished second in the Phoenix Stakes. He has since been represented by two other stakes winners in the northern hemisphere, Ferneley and She's Our Mark, both also from his first crop.

Ferneley is, like She's Our Mark, a horse who combines class with durability, having won six races, including the Grade 2 Del Mar Handicap, from 28 starts between the ages of two and five.

Ishiguru also left a Group 3 winner – Geeza – and a Listed scorer – Ishiabeel – from stints shuttling to Chequers Stud in New Zealand.

Sadly, Ishiguru was put down last September after suffering complications from a knee injury incurred earlier in the year. He had covered 36 mares at Tweenhills last year and 47 in 2008.

Markskeepingfaith's youngest registered progeny is her yearling colt by High-Rise.

INTERNATIONAL ROUND-UP

Average drops 16 per cent at Fasig-Tipton yearling sale

►►USA

FASIG-TIPTON'S two-day Saratoga Yearling Sale sold 117 lots – 27 per cent fewer than last year – for an aggregate of $32,415,000, down 38 per cent on 2009. The average fell 16 per cent to $277,051 while the median remained at $250,000.

Todd Pletcher went to $1.2m on behalf of Ben Leon's Besilu Stable for a colt by A P Indy out of US champion sprinter Maryfield, the only yearling to break $1m, compared to five last year.

John Ferguson signed for 14 lots worth $6.445m, led by two $750,000 purchases, an Afleet Alex half-brother to recent Haskell Invitational Stakes winner Lookin At Lucky and a Smart Strike half-brother to Grade 1 winner Mushka, out of Sluice. A daughter of Dubawi sold to Blandford Blood-stock for $200,000, but an Oasis Dream filly and Cape Cross colt failed to reach their reserves.

►►ESKENDEREYA, who had been a leading contender for this year's Kentucky Derby before being injured, will enter stud at Taylor Made Farm in Kentucky next season, owners Jess Jackson of Stone-street Farm and Ahmed Zayat of Zayat Stables announced.

Taylor Made Farm was selected by Jackson and Zayat to stand Eskendereya ahead of a group of four other Kentucky farms. A fee for the son of Giant's Causeway is yet to be set.

"Eskendereya was considered the best of his generation," said Jackson. "He has a royal pedigree containing many of the top sires of the past 50 years."

►►A TOTAL of 4,857 yearlings have been catalogued for the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. The catalogue, which requires 14 days of selling, is six per cent smaller than last year when 5,189 yearlings were entered.

As revealed by Keeneland this year, the 2010 September Sale will have a new format, with Book 1 held in two evening sessions instead of two full days.

Paradise puts Hart in perfect place

By Cathal Beale

CHRISTY HART will certainly be in buoyant mood when he submits one of the largest drafts at next week's Tattersalls Ireland National Hunt Sale at Fairyhouse. Hart Livery Farm & Stud achieved a notable success at Goodwood last week as the County Kildare-based operation consigned Tropical Paradise, winner of the Group 3 Oak Tree Stakes last Thursday, as a foal in 2006.

The Peter Winkworth-trained four-year-old daughter of Verglas is the third foal out of the Mujadil mare Ladylishandra and made €36,000 as a foal when selling under the Hart Livery banner at the Goffs November Foal Sale.

"She was a lovely correct foal with a good walk", says Hart. "Her dam was owned by a good syndicate of people including Alan Maguire, a near neighbour, and her foals were raised here until the mare was sold last year."

As well as consigning horses for sales, Hart Livery Farm offer breaking services and board a number of mares for outside clients. "Foaling is a major part of our business and at the height of things we were foaling around 180 mares, but this year we foaled 80. It is becoming harder and harder to be competitive, especially as we have 24-hour staffing during foaling," says Hart.

"We are very fortunate to have excellent clients and we would like to think that we are an asset to them as well. To achieve this, good staff are so important. A Polish couple named Mariuz and Yvonna have been with us for five years and are excellent.

"During the foaling season we have a first-class nightwatch person in Alison Thorne as well. It is all about surrounding yourself with good people, especially when you are dealing with people's investment you have to do your absolute best," says Hart.

Tropical Paradise and Ian Mongan power away from Golden Stream (No 2) and Pyrrha for victory in the Oak Tree Stakes at Goodwood

Christy Hart: "Good staff are so important"

Hart established the stud just outside Naas back in 1997, with his wife Paula, having previously been a dairy-farmer by trade. "My horse background is in eventing but my absolute passion is hunting with the Kildare and West Wicklow Hunts. My wife is also involved in eventing and dressage and plays an active role with the local ITBA," says Hart.

Another string to the stud's bow is their resident stallion Artan who covered about 25 or 30 mares this year. "We really like the look of his stock and he has sired some good horses such as Waleria and Boccassini," says Hart. "We have a very nice yearling filly by him which we hope to send to the breeze-up sale next year."

With the breeding season long since past, Hart is focused on the upcoming sales and with ten entered for next week's National Hunt sale at Fairyhouse it promises to be a busy time.

"We have some nice horses for the sale. There is a three-year-old filly out of a half sister to the great Baracouda, who we are very excited about and a nice gelding out of a sister to Hell's Bay."

This is a family Hart is particularly familiar with and undoubtedly fond of. "Hell's Bay is out of Queen's Flagship who has been a very lucky mare for us. We sold her first foal at Fairyhouse for 50,000 guineas which was a world record price for a store foal sold at auction at the time. We then sold Hell's Bay for €90,000 at the same venue in 2002 to again break the record. The mare put us on the map," says Hart.

While the Group 3 success of Tropical Paradise represents the greatest achievement for the stud on the Flat, other stud graduates include the Ger Lyons-trained City Of Tribes, who was twice placed in listed company.

Success in the jumps game has come more frequently and the best may be yet to come. Hart purchased a Presenting foal out of Una Juna in November 2005. Just four months later his full brother, War Of Attrition landed the Cheltenham Gold Cup.

"Hopefully he will be a great success for his connections and I will be watching out for him with great interest when he makes his debut on the racecourse," says Hart.

Rebel leads way for Irish at Goodwood

THE five-day Glorious Goodwood meeting ended on Saturday with Irish-bred horses having been successful in a creditable four of the 12 Group races, writes Cathal Beale. American-breds were on the mark once, through Lord Shanakill, and there was also a rare victory for a UAE-bred horse, with Eastern Aria landing the Lillie Langtry Stakes.

The first Group race of the week was the Gordon Stakes and this went the way of Irish-bred Rebel Soldier. Bred by the En Garde syndicate, named after the dam of the Danehill Dancer colt, Rebel Soldier was sold as a yearling by Timmy Hyde's Camas Park Stud to Blandford Bloodstock at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale.

Irish-bred horses had a great second day on the meeting, with Canford Cliffs landing the Group 1 Sussex Stakes, from another Irish-bred in Rip Van Winkle. The Tagula colt was landing his third Group 1 race of the season and was bred by Simon Hubbard. He was bought as a foal by Jimmy Murphy's Redpender Stud before being resold to Peter Doyle. Murphy bought Canford Cliffs' dam, Mrs Marsh, at Tattersalls in 2008 and sells her Holy Roman Emperor yearling this year.

The second Group race on Wednesday's card, the Group 3 Veuve Clicquot Vintage Stakes, also went to a Richard Hannon-trained Irish-bred. King Torus was bred by Whisperview Trading Ltd and was sold as a yearling by Aidan O'Brien's Cariganog Stud.

The rest of the week was dominated by British-breds, with Borderlescott, Illustrious Blue,

Timmy Hyde: sold Rebel Soldier as a yearling

Redwood, Libranno and Middy landing blows for the home side, after Zebedee's opening-day win.

The final Irish success of the week came in the Group 3 Oak Tree Stakes, where the Peter Winkworth-trained four-year-old filly Tropical Paradise scored. The daughter of Verglas was bred by a syndicate including George McMahon and was bought by Martin Raftery as a foal before reselling to bloodstock agent David Redvers for €42,000 at Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale.

Zaminast looks a star for Abdullah

A WONDERFUL week at Ballybrit was highlighted by Dermot Weld's magnificent 11 victories and Tony McCoy finally winning a Galway Plate, writes Cathal Beale. Unsurprisingly Irish-breds dominated but it was a British-based breeder who was responsible for the winner of the most valuable race of the week.

Although carrying an Ire suffix Overturn was bred by Pendley Farms, owned by Peter Harris. The six-year-old son of Barathea ran on the flat for Walter Swinburn and Donald McCain paid £75,000 for him at Doncaster Sales in 2009. It took him five starts to get his head in front, but Overturn has now won five of his last six starts including the Galway Hurdle.

The Plate of course went to McCoy on board JP McManus's

Finger Onthe Pulse who has now tasted success at both the Galway and Cheltenham festivals. The nine-year-old Accordion gelding was bred by Mary Fanning McCormack and was sold from the Monasterevin-based Quinsboro Stud. Trainer Tom Taaffe paid 18,500 Irish Guineas for him back in 2001 as a foal.

Other impressive winners were the Juddmonte duo Zaminast and Parlour, both trained by Dermot Weld. The two began an excellent week for Khalid Abdullah on a global scale, with Redwood, Critical Moment and Middy carrying his pink and green silks to stakes wins at Goodwood, Helleboirne landing a listed race at Deauville and Proviso winning the Grade 1 Diana Stakes at Saratoga in New York.

The two-year-old Zaminast is

regally bred, being a half-sister to Weld's multiple Group winner Famous Name and will have the CL Weld Stakes or Moyglare Stakes as targets.

Weld's dominance was halted by Aidan O'Brien in the other strong maiden of the week. Staged on the opening day the ClareGalwayhotel.ie EBF Maiden is usually a Weld benefit, but O'Brien broke the stranglehold with the Galileo colt Robin Hood. Bred by Lynch Bages Ltd, he scored under the trainer's son Joseph.
